Praying in advance of November 3, 2020

Monday, October 26, 2020 (For the continuing Pandemic)

God, in the midst of the continuing pandemic, we trust that you are good and do good. Teach us to be your faithful people in this time of global crisis. We hold before you the ill, the isolated, the recovering, and frontline workers. We ask your wisdom and grace for those researching the virus and allocating resources to fight it. Help us to follow in the footsteps of our faithful shepherd, Jesus, who laid down his life for the sake of love. Glorify his name as you equip us with everything needed for doing your will. Amen.

Tuesday, October 27, 2020 (For the Suffering)

O God, we commend to your fatherly goodness all those who are suffering and distressed whether in mind, body, or circumstance. We ask that you would comfort and relieve them according to all their needs, giving them patience under their sufferings, and deliverance out of all their afflictions. And this we beg for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

Wednesday, October 28, 2020 (For the Church as a light)

O God, the creator and preserver of all mankind, we ask on behalf of all humanity that you would make your ways known to us, your saving health to all nations. We pray that by your good Spirit all who profess and call themselves Christians may be led into the way of truth, and hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life. Amen.

Thursday, October 29, 2020 (For Social Unrest and Conflict)

O God, you have bound us together in a common life. Help us, in the midst of our struggles for justice and truth, to confront one another without hatred or bitterness, and to work together with mutual forbearance and respect; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Friday, October 30, 2020 (For our Country)

Almighty God, we thank you for this time and place in which we live. Bless our land with honorable industry, sound learning, and civility. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion; from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way. Defend our liberties, and make us into one united people, regardless of our outward differences. All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saturday, October 31, 2020 (For those in authority)

Almighty God, grant the spirit of wisdom to those whom in your Name we entrust the authority of government so there may be justice and peace at home, and that, through obedience to your law of love, we may bring you praise among the nations of the earth. In the time of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness, and in the day of trouble, help us hold fast to our hope in you; all which we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, November 1, 2020 (For those in government)

O Lord our Governor, bless the leaders of our land, that we may be a people at peace among ourselves and a blessing to other nations of the earth. We pray for all those (current and future) serving in office with administrative authority: the President, members of the Cabinet, governors, mayors, Senators, Representatives, legislators, judges, and officers of the court. Grant them wisdom, grace, and courage to exercise their duties with integrity, remembering their obligations to provide for the needs of all our people, to safeguard human rights, and secure justice for all. Through Jesus Christ our Lord we pray. Amen.

Monday, November 2, 2020 (For our civic responsibilities)

O God, teach us to rely on your strength and to accept our responsibilities to our fellow citizens, that we may elect trustworthy leaders and make wise decisions for the well-being of our society; that we may serve you faithfully in our generation and honor your holy Name. For yours is the kingdom, O Lord, and you are exalted as head above all. Amen.

Tuesday, November 3, 2020 (Election Day)

Almighty God, to whom we must account for all our powers and privileges: Guide the people of the United States, of this state and city in the election of officials and representatives; that, by faithful administration and wise laws, the rights of all may be protected and our nation be enabled to fulfill your purposes; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
